Elyse,

I am sorry. It is an in-house meeting. We would like schedule a courtesy call (meeting) for Deputy Chief of Mission Jacob Chang in the next month or two. Deputy Chang would like to update Congresswoman Hayworth on two topics. First being, U.S.-Taiwan relations and secondly, on Cross-Strait/Taiwan-Mainland China affairs. I apologize again, Sean said that you knew what it was regarding, so I didn't want to be redundant.

Best Regards,
 LaShaun

Thanks. Can you provide a little more information about the topic of conversation? Is it a call or a meeting?

Mr. Dietz,

Hello, how are you? My name is LaShaun Lesley, a member of the Park Strategies team. Before I go any further, please note that Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

Now that I have gotten that out of the way, I believe you may have met my colleague, Sean King, when he stopped by your boss' office on Swearing-In-Day, and you two had a brief conversation. You probably would have gotten acquainted in person earlier, had he not missed his flight to North Dakota to work on Congressman Berg's campaign. We still tease him about going to the wrong airport to this day. I do know that he is quite fond of the Congressman, and North Dakota, and was very upset that he missed his flight.

However, I am reaching out to you today to see if we can schedule a courtesy call for Deputy Chief of Mission Jacob Chang in the next month or two. Deputy Chang would like to update Congressman Berg on two topics. First being, U.S.-Taiwan relations and secondly, on Cross-Strait/Taiwan-Mainland China affairs. If you would be so kind as to get back to me regarding scheduling a time when Congressman Berg might be available for such a meeting. It would be greatly appreciated.

Please find DCM Chang's bio attached, and thanks again for your assistance.

Best regards,
LaShaun
